Colleagues,
Numerous items of interest today, including two of special note to members of this list:

- AP photo legend Max Desfor, 99, Pulitzer winner during the Korean War, and Nick Ut, Pulitzer winner in the Vietnam War, got together with retired photo director Hal Buell following a Newseum discussion Saturday in Washington, D.C., for the new AP photo history, "Vietnam: The Real War." Photo here <http://instagram.com/p/f-kscYAdk9/> Also, a tremendous New York Times photo blog about Max and his work is linked below.
- Former AP markets executive and long-time Dallas chief of bureau John Lumpkin unexpectedly dropped by the Cronkite News Service bureau on a tour of Arizona State University's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism in Phoenix Monday and said hello to another former AP exec and bureau chief, Steve Elliott. Steve shared a photo of them (attached) in front of a bulletin board of newspaper pages with Cronkite News Service play. Lumpkin was in town for a
- luncheon presenting CBS newsman Bob Schieffer, namesake of Lumpkin's program at Texas Christian University, with the Cronkite Award for Excellence in Journalism.

NOTE: I will be handling Connecting the next two days. Send tips, links, etc. to markmittelstadt@gmail.com.

Finally...

It's where much of the news industry is headed. And yet doctors are advising parents: limit kids' texts, tweets, online time, use of social media. And, an AP story reports, keep smartphones and laptops out of bedrooms. As AP writer Lindsey Tanner hash-tags, #goodluckwiththat
