Colleagues,

Happy Veterans Day, to my fellow veterans on Connecting, and thank you for your service.

I share the attached photo taken during my recent visit to Omaha Beach and the Normandy American Cemetery nearby – that we not forget the sacrifices made for our freedom.

Ray March shares with supporters of the Ed Kennedy project that on Dec. 6, Kennedy will be the recipient of the California Press Association's Mark Twain Award for Excellence in Journalism. Eric and Ed's daughter Julia Kennedy Cochran will be present receive the award. This is a special Cal Press Hall of Fame award that was inaugurated in 2010. Previous recipients are Ron Fimrite (2010), Herb Caen (2011) and Paul Conrad (2012). The award, given posthumously, will be presented at a luncheon held at the Marine Memorial Club in San Francisco, according to Becky Clark, president, California Press Foundation and publisher-editor of the Idyllwild Town Crier.

Thanks to many of you who have shared your memories of that day 50 years ago when John Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas. I am collecting your memories and will share next week. So if you haven't responded, send me a brief note on what you were doing at that moment on Nov. 22, 1963. If you were working, share any detail on how you might have been involved in the coverage either nationally or locally, and I will share remembrances with the group.

Welcome to our newest Connecting member - Edie Lederer.
